Berks Junior 'Did you Know'...

- This year for Community Service at camp the Juniors artistically created sun catchers that were distributed to the Berks Heim residents by the new county royalty.
- There is a complete and beautiful newsletter depicting everything about camp. Please ask Karen Mohn if you would like to see details on camp.
- Camp for 2008 is set for May 16-18 at Camp Swatara.
- There were 43 people that attended the Junior sponsored day trip to the Wolfgang Candy Factory and the DreamWrights Theatre in York County.

Ice Cream Stand

The juniors will again hold their ice cream sale at the county grange consignment sale. We will be opening the stand at two different times: Friday (8/24) from 4pm—8pm and Saturday (8/25) from 8am—3pm (or when the ice cream runs out!). Due to the expanded time the stand will be open, we are implementing a schedule for the sale. We need every child to sign up for their "working" hours in the stand. We are recommending 2 hour shifts. Please contact Tina Blatt 610.562.9680 to get your child's name on the schedule. Please wear your green camp shirt while working in the stand! During the time your child isn't on the schedule working in the stand, parents are responsible for their children.

IMPORTANT NEW INFORMATION...

Effective immediately... There are new requirements for the Berks County Royalty contest... from one camp until the next year's camp, a junior member must attend 2 county functions and 50% of their local meetings in order to qualify for making the royalty court. Every Camper will take the royalty test and can qualify for the high test score.

THANK-YOU!...to any member that dined at Hoss's on June 12. We appreciate you helping to support the junior program. We received a check for $127.88!!!!

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
